LOVE THAT FULFILLS THE LAW

The 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A highlights the call to love, act with justice, and live out faith. The readings remind people that faith is not just about belief but also about how they treat others. God commands His people to care for the weak, be fair in their actions, and love others as they love themselves. Jesus teaches that love is the foundation of all God's laws. These reflections explore the themes of justice, action, and love in light of these readings.

AMOR QUE CUMPLE LA LEY DE DIOS

The 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A highlights the call to love, act with justice, and live out faith. The readings remind people that faith is not just about belief but also about how they treat others. God commands His people to care for the weak, be fair in their actions, and love others as they love themselves. Jesus teaches that love is the foundation of all God's laws. These reflections explore the themes of justice, action, and love in light of these readings.

ACTIONS MATTER

The second reading for the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A speaks about faith in action. Paul praises the Thessalonians because their faith is not just words. They live in a way that shows what they believe. Others see their example and are inspired.

Faith should change how people live. It is not enough to say the right things. Actions show what is truly in a person's heart. If someone believes in love and justice, they must show it in how they treat others.

In the modern world, people often share opinions online or talk about doing good. But real change comes through action. Just as the Thessalonians became an example by how they lived, people today can show their faith by what they do.

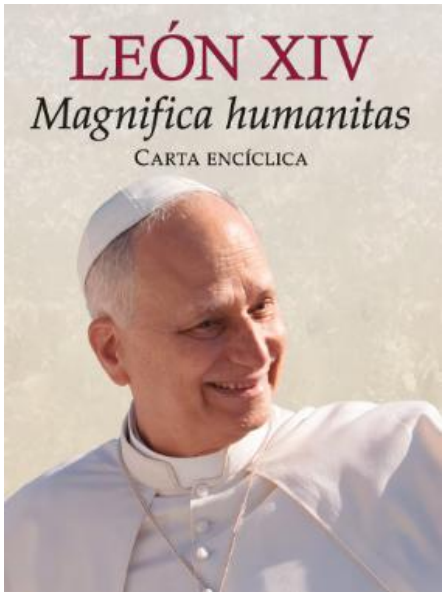
The 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A is a reminder that faith is more than words. It calls people to act with love, kindness, and fairness.

LAS ACCIONES IMPORTAN

La segunda lectura del 30º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario Año A habla sobre la fe en acción. Pablo elogía a los Tesalonicenses porque su fe no son solo palabras. Ellos viven de una manera que muestra lo que creen. Otros ven su ejemplo y se sienten inspirados.

La fe debería cambiar la forma en que la gente vive. No basta con decir las cosas correctas. Las acciones muestran lo que realmente hay en el corazón de una persona. Si alguien cree en el amor y la justicia, debe demostrarlo en cómo trata a los demás.

En el mundo actual, la gente a menudo comparte opiniones en línea o habla de hacer el bien. Pero el verdadero cambio viene a través de la acción. Así como los Tesalonicenses se convirtieron en un ejemplo por la forma en que vivían, la gente hoy puede mostrar su fe con lo que hace.



…"In the era of artificial intelligence, when human dignity is threatened by new forms of dehumanization, ours is the pressing duty to remain profoundly human. We must lovingly safeguard the grandeur of humanity bestowed upon us and revealed in its fullness in Christ, the splendor of which no machine can ever replace."

…" En la era de la inteligencia artificial, cuando la dignidad humana se ve amenazada por nuevas formas de deshumanización, tenemos el deber apremiante de permanecer profundamente humanos. Debemos salvaguardar con amor la grandeza de la humanidad que se nos ha conferido —y que se revela en su plenitud en Cristo, cuyo esplendor ninguna máquina podrá jamás reemplazar.

Saint Simon and Saint Jude were two of the twelve Apostles chosen by Jesus. They were part of the group that followed Him closely and helped spread His teachings. Even though we don't know much about them, they played an important role in the early Church. They were faithful and dedicated to spreading the Gospel.
These two saints are remembered together because they are believed to have worked together in their missionary efforts. Tradition says they both preached in Persia and were martyred for their faith. Their feast day is celebrated on October 28.
San Simón y San Judas fueron dos de los doce Apóstoles elegidos por Jesús. Formaban parte del grupo que lo seguía de cerca y ayudaba a difundir sus enseñanzas. Aunque no sabemos mucho sobre ellos, desempeñaron un papel importante en la Iglesia primitiva. Fueron fieles y dedicados a difundir el Evangelio.
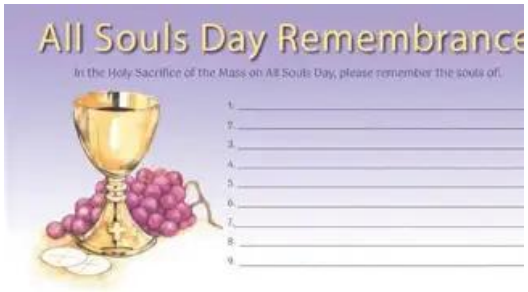
Estos dos santos son recordados juntos porque se cree que trabajaron juntos en su esfuerzo misione. La tradición dice que ambos predicaron en Persia y fueron martirizados por su fe. Su día de fiesta se celebra el 28 de octubre.



The envelopes for the deceased should be placed in the basket at the front of the altar and will remain on the altar throughout the month of November.

Los sobres destinados a los difuntos deben colocarse en la cesta situada frente al altar y permanecerán en el altar durante todo el mes de noviembre.
