STAYING READY FOR WHAT MATTERS

The second reading for the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds people that they do not know when God will come. It says that the "Day of the Lord" will come suddenly, like a thief in the night. This means people should always be ready. They should not live carelessly or assume they have unlimited time.

Being ready does not mean living in fear. It means being aware and responsible. Just as people prepare for important events in life, they should also prepare spiritually. They should not put off doing what is right or wait until later to grow in faith.

The 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A encourages people to stay awake and alert. This means living with purpose, making good choices, and being faithful in daily life. No one knows what the future holds, but being ready means always trying to do what is right.

The 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A challenges people to reflect on their choices. Are they using their talents well? Are they preparing their hearts for God? These reflections encourage a deeper look at responsibility, trust, and faith. Living wisely and faithfully brings lasting rewards.

Estar preparados para lo que realmente importa

La segunda lectura del 33.º domingo del tiempo ordinario (año A) nos recuerda que no sabemos cuándo vendrá Dios. Dice que el «Día del Señor» llegará de improviso, como un ladrón en la noche. Esto significa que debemos estar siempre preparados; no debemos vivir con descuido ni suponer que disponemos de un tiempo ilimitado.

Estar preparados no significa vivir con miedo, sino más bien mantenerse atentos y ser responsables. Del mismo modo que nos preparamos para los acontecimientos importantes de la vida, también debemos prepararnos espiritualmente. No conviene posponer el hacer lo correcto ni esperar a otro momento para crecer en la fe.

El 33.º domingo del tiempo ordinario (año A) nos invita a permanecer despiertos y alertas. Esto implica vivir con un propósito, tomar buenas decisiones y ser fieles en la vida cotidiana. Nadie sabe qué nos depara el futuro, pero estar preparados significa esforzarse siempre por hacer lo correcto.

Este 33.º domingo del tiempo ordinario (año A) nos desafía a reflexionar sobre nuestras decisiones: ¿estamos aprovechando bien nuestros talentos? ¿Estamos preparando nuestro corazón para Dios? Estas reflexiones nos invitan a profundizar en la responsabilidad, la confianza y la fe. Vivir con sabiduría y fidelidad conlleva recompensas duraderas.

Let us remember in our Prayers.

Those who are sick or suffering in any way, especially the homebound and the elderly, that God will assist them in their time of need and that they may find comfort and healing in Christ. For the deceased and for those who have gone before us, that they may rest in peace of the risen savior.

TENGAMOS PRESENTES EN NUESTRAS ORACIONES

a quienes están enfermos o sufren de alguna manera especialmente a los ancianos y a aquellos que no pueden salir de sus hogares, para que Dios los asista en su momento de necesidad y encuentren consuelo y sanación en Cristo. Oremos también por los difuntos y por todos aquellos que nos han precedido, para que descansen en la paz del Salvador resucitado.
