Faith That Takes Action

The second reading for the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A shows that real faith is not just words. Paul praises the Thessalonians because their faith is visible in their actions. They live with love, hope, and trust in God. Their faith is not hidden or passive. It moves them to serve others and stay strong in difficult times.

Paul also speaks about the Holy Spirit. The Thessalonians did not believe in God on their own. God called them, and the Holy Spirit strengthened their faith. This reminds people that faith is a gift. It is not just about human effort. God invites people to believe, and the Holy Spirit helps them live that belief.

The message of the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A challenges people to reflect on their own faith. Is it just words, or does it shape their daily life? Do they serve others and trust in God even when life is hard? Faith should be more than something people say—it should be something they do.

Living faith means showing love, being patient, and staying hopeful. It means trusting in God's plan even when things are uncertain. Like the Thessalonians, people are called to live in a way that reflects what they believe. True faith is seen in action.

Una Fe Que Se Traduce En Acción

La segunda lectura del 29.º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (Ciclo A) nos muestra que la fe verdadera no se limita a palabras. Pablo elogia a los tesalonicenses porque su fe se hace visible en sus acciones; viven con amor, esperanza y confianza en Dios. Su fe no es oculta ni pasiva, sino que los impulsa a servir a los demás y a mantenerse firmes en los momentos difíciles.

Pablo también habla del Espíritu Santo. Los tesalonicenses no llegaron a creer en Dios por sí mismos; Dios los llamó y el Espíritu Santo fortaleció su fe. Esto nos recuerda que la fe es un don y no depende únicamente del esfuerzo humano. Dios invita a las personas a creer, y el Espíritu Santo les ayuda a vivir esa fe.

El mensaje de este domingo nos invita a reflexionar sobre nuestra propia fe. ¿Se reduce a palabras o moldea nuestra vida cotidiana? ¿Servimos a los demás y confiamos en Dios incluso cuando la vida se vuelve difícil? La fe debe ser más que algo que se dice; debe ser algo que se practica.

Vivir la fe significa mostrar amor, tener paciencia y mantener la esperanza. Implica confiar en el plan de Dios aun cuando las circunstancias son inciertas. Al igual que los tesalonicenses, estamos llamados a vivir de manera que nuestra vida refleje nuestras creencias. La fe verdadera se manifiesta en la acción.

LET US PRAY FOR OUR HOLY FATHER

OREMOS POR NUESTRO SANTO PAPA

MAY THE LORD SUSTAIN HIM
WITH STRENGTH, PEACE, AND HEALING.

Prayer for all Souls Day

Merciful Father, hear our prayer and console us, as we renew our faith in Your Son, whom You raise from the dead, strengthen our hope that all our departed brother and sisters will share in His resurrection, who lives and reigns with You an the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
Amen

Oración por todas las almas

*Padre misericordioso, escucha nuestra oración y consuélanos; al renovar nuestra fe en tu Hijo, a quien resucitaste de entre los muertos, fortalece nuestra esperanza de que todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas difuntos participarán en su resurrección; él, que vive y reina contigo y con el Espíritu Santo, y es Dios, por los siglos de los siglos.
