This week's Gospel speaks of how Jesus' disciples are to conduct themselves as they await the Kingdom of Heaven.

Jesus' parable talks about Christian discipleship using economic metaphors. Before he leaves on a journey, the master entrusts to his servants a different number of talents, giving to each according to their abilities. A talent is a coin of great value. Upon the master's return, he finds that the first and second servants have doubled their money, and both are rewarded. The third servant, however, has only preserved what was given to him because he was afraid to lose the money. He has risked nothing; he did not even deposit the money in a bank to earn interest. This servant is punished by the master, and his talent is given to the one who brought the greatest return.

Our gifts, or talents, are given to us for the service of others. If we fail to use these gifts, God's judgment on us will be severe. On the other hand, if we make use of these gifts in service to the Kingdom of Heaven, we will be rewarded and entrusted with even more responsibilities.

This Gospel reminds us that Christian spirituality is not passive or inactive. Our life of prayer helps us to discern the gifts that have been given to us by God. This prayer and discernment ought to lead us to use our gifts in the service of God and our neighbor. God's grace allows us to share in the work of serving the Kingdom of Heaven.

El Evangelio de esta semana habla de cómo deben comportarse los discípulos de Jesús mientras esperan el Reino de los Cielos. En la parábola de Jesús, el señor confía a sus siervos un número diferente de talentos, repartiendo a cada uno según sus capacidades. Un talento es una moneda de gran valor. Al regresar, el amo descubre que el primer y segundo sirviente han duplicado su dinero y ambos son recompensados. El tercer siervo, sin embargo, sólo conservó lo que le fue dado porque tenía miedo de perder el dinero. No ha arriesgado nada; ni siquiera depositó el dinero en un banco para ganar intereses. Este sirviente es castigado por el amo y su talento se entrega al que generó el mayor retorno.

Nuestros dones o talentos nos son dados para el servicio de los demás. Si no utilizamos estos dones, el juicio de Dios sobre nosotros será severo. Por otro lado, si utilizamos estos dones al servicio del Reino de los Cielos, seremos recompensados y se nos confiarán aún más responsabilidades.

Este Evangelio nos recuerda que la espiritualidad cristiana no es pasiva ni inactiva. Nuestra vida de oración nos ayuda a discernir los dones que nos ha dado Dios. Esta oración y discernimiento deben llevarnos a utilizar nuestros dones al servicio de Dios y del prójimo. La gracia de Dios nos permite compartir la obra de servir al Reino de los Cielos.
