

Teen Confirmation Program

Policies and Enrollment

The Teen Confirmation program requires a two-year commitment. Young people must be enrolled in the Teen Confirmation program for two years to receive their First Communion.

Preparation through the Teen Confirmation program includes education in Catholic doctrine, Bible study, participation in the parish community, and activities in social justice.

This education prepares young people for Confirmation in their faith and for First Communion as a member of our faith community.

Young people must enroll by early September.

There are modest fees to help with books and materials.

Participation. The young people and their families are expected to commit to regularly attending classes and Sunday liturgies throughout this program.

Young people in the Teen Confirmation program also help with many of the parish activities.
