The Prayer for Generosity

Lord teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve you as you deserve, to give and not count to the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward, save that of knowing that I do you will.

Serving Christ Above All

The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A also highlights what it means to live for Christ. Paul writes about his deep commitment to serving Jesus. He is ready to live or die, as long as he honors Christ. His focus is not on himself but on doing what is best for others.

This connects to the gospel parable. The laborers focus on what they receive instead of the joy of being chosen to work. But Paul's example shows a different mindset. He does not worry about what he gets. He only cares about serving Christ. This is the attitude that Christians are called to have.

Many people struggle with wanting recognition. They want their efforts to be noticed and rewarded. But Paul's words remind us to shift our focus. The goal is not to be first or to receive the most. The goal is to live for Christ.

The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A challenges us to examine our motivations. Do we seek personal gain, or do we live to glorify God? True faith is not about rewards. It is about trusting God and serving Him with a willing heart.

Servir a Cristo por encima de todo

El 25.º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (Ciclo A) también destaca lo que significa vivir para Cristo.

Pablo escribe sobre su profundo compromiso de servir a Jesús. Está dispuesto a vivir o a morir, siempre y cuando honre a Cristo. Su enfoque no está en sí mismo, sino en hacer lo mejor para los demás.

Esto se relaciona con la parábola del Evangelio. Los trabajadores se centran en lo que reciben en lugar de en la alegría de haber sido elegidos para trabajar. Pero el ejemplo de Pablo muestra una mentalidad diferente. No se preocupa por lo que obtiene; solo le importa servir a Cristo. Esta es la actitud que los cristianos están llamados a tener.

Muchas personas luchan con el deseo de reconocimiento. Quieren que sus esfuerzos sean notados y recompensados. Pero las palabras de Pablo nos recuerdan que debemos cambiar nuestro enfoque. La meta no es ser el primero ni recibir más que nadie; la meta es vivir para Cristo.

El 25.º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (Ciclo A) nos desafía a examinar nuestras motivaciones. ¿Buscamos el beneficio personal o vivimos para glorificar a Dios? La verdadera fe no trata de recompensas, sino de confiar en Dios y servirle con un corazón dispuesto.
