The Prayer for Generosity

Lord teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve you as you deserve, to give and not count to the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward, save that of knowing that I do you will.

St. Ignatius of Loyola

Nothing Can Separate Us from God's Love

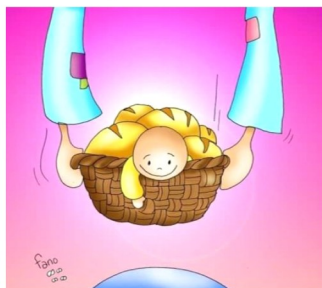

Paul's message in the second reading for the 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A is clear. Nothing can separate us from God's love. Not trouble, hardship, or anything else. God's love is constant, no matter what happens.

Life can be hard. We face struggles, losses, and disappointments. Sometimes, we may feel distant from God or wonder if He is still with us. But Paul assures us that no challenge is greater than God's love. Even in the hardest times, He is with us.

In the Gospel, the disciples are unsure how to feed the crowd. They feel helpless in the situation. But Jesus shows them that even when things seem impossible, He is there to help. He takes what little they have and makes it enough.

This is a reminder for all of us. No matter what we are facing, God does not leave us. His love is steady and unbreakable. The 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A encourages us to trust that He is always with us, no matter what we go through.

«Yo soy el pan vivo, bajado del cielo. Si uno come de este pan, vivirá para siempre; y el pan que yo le voy a dar, es mi carne por la vida del mundo».

Nada puede separarnos del amor de Dios

El mensaje de Pablo en la segunda lectura del 18.º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (Ciclo A) es claro: nada puede separarnos del amor de Dios. Ni las dificultades, ni las adversidades, ni ninguna otra cosa. El amor de Dios es constante, pase lo que pase.

La vida puede ser dura. Nos enfrentamos a luchas, pérdidas y decepciones. A veces, podemos sentirnos alejados de Dios o preguntarnos si Él sigue con nosotros. Pero Pablo nos asegura que ningún desafío es mayor que el amor de Dios. Incluso en los momentos más difíciles, Él está con nosotros. En el Evangelio, los discípulos no saben cómo alimentar a la multitud; se sienten impotentes ante la situación. Pero Jesús les demuestra que, aun cuando las cosas parecen imposibles, Él está allí para ayudar. Toma lo poco que tienen y hace que sea suficiente.

Esto es un recordatorio para todos nosotros. Sin importar a qué nos enfrentemos, Dios no nos abandona. Su amor es firme e inquebrantable. El 18.º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (Ciclo A) nos anima a confiar en que Él está siempre con nosotros, sin importar por lo que pasemos.

Let us remember in our Prayers

Those who are sick or suffering in any way, especially the homebound and the elderly, that God will assist them in their time of need and that they may find comfort and healing in Christ.

For the deceased and for those who have gone before us, that they may rest in peace of the risen Savior.

Recordemos en nuestras oraciones

A aquellos que están enfermos o sufriendo de alguna manera, especialmente a los que están en casa y a los ancianos, para que Dios los ayude en su momento de necesidades y que puedan encontrar consuelo y sanación en Cristo.

Por todos los difuntos que nos han precedido en el viaje eterno, para que descansen en la paz del Salvador resucitado.
