The Prayer for Generosity

Lord teach me to be generous. Teach me to serve you as you deserve, to give and not count to the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for reward, save that of knowing that I do you will.

Let us remember in our Prayers

Those who are sick or suffering in any way, especially the homebound and the elderly, that God will assist them in their time of need and that they may find comfort and healing in Christ.

For the deceased and for those who have gone before us, that they may rest in peace of the risen Savior.

Recordemos en nuestras oraciones

A aquellos que están enfermos o sufriendo de alguna manera, especialmente a los que están en casa y a los ancianos, para que Dios los ayude en su momento de necesidad y que puedan encontrar consuelo y sanación en Cristo.

Por los difuntos y por aquellos que nos han precedido, para que descansen en la paz del Salvador

Struggles and Hope in Faith

The second reading for the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A speaks about suffering and hope. St. Paul says that the struggles of this life are small compared to the glory that is coming. He compares the world's pain to the pains of childbirth, showing that something greater is being prepared.

Faith is not always easy. People face challenges, doubts, and moments of weakness. Sometimes, it may feel like God is far away. But just as a woman in labor endures pain for the joy of new life, believers must endure difficulties with hope. God is working, even when it is hard to see.

Creation itself is waiting for renewal. Paul reminds us that all things will one day be made new. This promise gives strength to those who are tired or discouraged. The suffering of the present is temporary, but God's promises last forever.

The 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A encourages patience and trust. The road to faith is not always smooth, but God is with His people. In the end, those who remain faithful will share in His glory.

Luchas y esperanza en la fe

La segunda lectura del XV Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (Ciclo A) habla sobre el sufrimiento y la esperanza. San Pablo afirma que las luchas de esta vida son pequeñas en comparación con la gloria venidera. Compara el dolor del mundo con los dolores del parto, mostrando que se está gestando algo grandioso.

La fe no siempre es fácil. Las personas enfrentan desafíos, dudas y momentos de debilidad. A veces, puede parecer que Dios está lejos. Pero, así como la mujer de parto soporta el dolor por la alegría de una nueva vida, los creyentes deben sobrellevar las dificultades con esperanza. Dios está actuando, incluso cuando es difícil percibirlo.

La creación misma aguarda su renovación. Pablo nos recuerda que, un día, todas las cosas serán hechas nuevas. Esta promesa fortalece a quienes se sienten cansados o desanimados. El sufrimiento del presente es pasajero, pero las promesas de Dios permanecen para siempre.

El XV Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (Ciclo A) nos invita a la paciencia y a la confianza. El camino de la fe no siempre es sencillo, pero Dios acompaña a su pueblo. Al final, quienes permanezcan fieles participarán de su gloria.
