Let us pray

This year the community of St Kevin will rejoice as Sara Wong is received during easter vigil as a new member of our Catholic ever growing family.

Let us pray for her and all catechumens as they are a sign of God's love and through our prayers they may receive courage, joy, and peace as they proceed along the difficult journey they have begun.

Este año, la comunidad de San Kevin se regocijará al recibir a Sara Wong, durante la Vigilia Pascual, como nueva miembro de nuestra familia católica, que no deja de crecer.

Oremos por ella y por todos los catecúmenos, pues son un signo del amor de Dios; que, a través de nuestras oraciones, reciban fortaleza, alegría y paz mientras avanzan por el arduo camino que han emprendido.

Women of Faith

The 5th Sunday of Lent Year A highlights the faith of Martha and Mary, two women who were close friends of Jesus. When Lazarus dies, both sisters show their faith in Jesus, though in different ways. Martha meets Jesus and speaks with confidence about the resurrection. She expresses her belief that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God.

Martha's faith is rooted in understanding and knowledge. She listens to Jesus' words and responds with conviction. Her faith is strong even in her grief, showing trust in Jesus' power over death. She believes that even now, Jesus can do something remarkable.

Mary responds differently. She is overcome with emotion and weeps at Jesus' feet. Her faith is expressed through her sorrow and vulnerability. Jesus is moved by her tears and weeps with her, showing his compassion and sharing her pain.

Both women show great faith but in their own ways. Jesus meets each of them where they are, responding to Martha with words of hope and to Mary with shared grief. This shows that Jesus understands and honors our different ways of believing and feeling. The 5th Sunday of Lent Year A invites us to reflect on our own faith. Whether we are like Martha with strong convictions or like Mary with deep emotions, Jesus meets us with love and understanding. We are called to trust in him and to find hope in his promise of resurrection.

Mujeres de fe

El quinto domingo de Cuaresma (Ciclo A) destaca la fe de Marta y María, dos mujeres que fueron amigas cercanas de Jesús. Cuando Lázaro muere, ambas hermanas manifiestan su fe en Jesús, aunque de maneras diferentes. Marta sale al encuentro de Jesús y habla con confianza acerca de la resurrección. Expresa su creencia de que Jesús es el Cristo, el Hijo de Dios.

La fe de Marta tiene sus raíces en la comprensión y el conocimiento. Ella escucha las palabras de Jesús y responde con convicción. Su fe se mantiene firme incluso en medio de su duelo, demostrando confianza en el poder de Jesús sobre la muerte. Ella cree que, incluso en ese momento, Jesús puede realizar algo extraordinario.

María responde de manera diferente. Se ve embargada por la emoción y llora a los pies de Jesús. Su fe se expresa a través de su dolor y su vulnerabilidad. Jesús se conmueve ante sus lágrimas y llora con ella, manifestando así su compasión y compartiendo su pena.

Ambas mujeres demuestran una gran fe, pero cada una a su propia manera. Jesús sale al encuentro de cada una de ellas allí donde se encuentran, respondiendo a Marta con palabras de esperanza y a María con un dolor compartido. Esto nos muestra que Jesús comprende y honra nuestras diversas formas de creer y de sentir.

El quinto domingo de Cuaresma (Ciclo A) nos invita a reflexionar sobre nuestra propia fe. Ya sea que nos asemejemos a Marta, con sus firmes convicciones, o a María, con sus profundas emociones, Jesús sale a nuestro encuentro con amor y comprensión. Estamos llamados a confiar en Él y a hallar esperanza en su promesa de resurrección.

wanting to go to confession is the first step in going to confession, Confessing you sins wipes the slate clean again with God and makes us stronger spiritually. Regularly going to confession is a way to grow in holiness. Knowing what to do in confession will make the process much easier.

Much of the work for a good celebrations of a sacrament takes place prior to arriving at church. An honest , humble, and thorough examination of conscience helps you to prepare for the sacrament. Writing you sins on a piece of paper before you go can help you during your confession.

El deseo de ir a confesarse es el primer paso para hacerlo. Confesar los pecados nos permite empezar de nuevo ante Dios y nos fortalece espiritualmente. Acudir a la confesión con regularidad es un medio para crecer en santidad. Saber qué hacer durante la confesión hará que el proceso resulte mucho más sencillo.

Gran parte del trabajo necesario para celebrar dignamente un sacramento se realiza antes de llegar a la iglesia. Un examen de conciencia honesto, humilde y minucioso ayuda a prepararse para recibir el sacramento. Anotar los pecados en un papel antes de acudir a confesarse puede ser de gran ayuda durante la confesión misma.
